About GIZ

Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH is an enterprise owned by the German Government. It implements sustainable development through international cooperation, on behalf of Germany and other partners. With a global footprint in over 120 countries, GIZ leverages its regional and technical expertise for local innovation. Our Vision: We work to shape a future worth living around the world.

For over 60 years, GIZ has been working jointly with partners in India for sustainable economic, ecological, and social development. Currently 277 national, 44 international employees, and 10 integrated specialists are working in the country. The thematic areas of GIZ in India are: Environment, Climate Change and Biodiversity; Sustainable Urban and Industrial Development; Energy and Sustainable Economic Development.

The Indo-German Biodiversity Programme

IGBP is working with its overarching goal of sustainable use of biological diversity to support livelihoods for future generations. The programme addresses the challenges of biodiversity conservation in ten complementary areas:

- Sustainable Management of Forest Ecosystem Services (FES)
- Enhancement of Smallholder Spice Farmers’ Capacities in Sustainable Farming
- Wetlands Management for Biodiversity and Climate Protection
- Human-Wildlife Conflict Mitigation (HWC)
- Private Business Action for Biodiversity (PBAB)
- Access and Benefit-Sharing (ABS) Partnership
- Himachal Pradesh Forest Ecosystem Services (HP-FES)
- Valuation of Ecosystem Services (TII)
- India Business and Biodiversity Initiative (IBBI)
- Conservation and Sustainable use of Coastal and Marine Protected Areas (CMPA)
